

The Falconry Experience Field Trips

Discover the ultimate close encounter with some of the most majestic birds of prey in the world. Set in the amazing scenery of the Scottish Countryside. This is a totally unique experience. The land we use, boast some of the most stunning views in Scotland where the scenery is unspoiled for miles around. The peace and tranquillity of this experience together with the excitement of flying these birds, promises to be wonderfully memorable. If you prefer, we can bring our birds to a venue of your choice to take guests out and we are able to work with either groups or individuals.

- The Thistle - a half day experience

(approximately 3 hours)

Start the day with a coffee and an introduction to the birds and some basic handling instruction before setting off in our 4x4 to the Scottish countryside where guests will be flying the birds in their natural surroundings. Dates for this are set throughout the year and guests will join a party of up to 6 individuals in total. There will be 2 hawks and ferrets (depending on season). A great afternoon flying the hawks and working ferrets.

- The Rowan - the individual half day experience

(approximately 3 hours)

Feel like a bit of personal attention or just don't want to share the experience with other people? Then guests can come along on one of our individual experiences where the day is all about them the birds and nature. Dates are flexible and available throughout the year. There are a maximum of 2 individuals in the party and all participants will be allocated their own hawk to fly throughout the experience.

- The Gorse - a whole day experience

(approximately 7 hours)

We start the day with an introduction to the birds and some basic handling tuition. Then head out into the Scottish Countryside for a morning getting to know the birds and learning how to fly them. Lunch is taken at a local hotel or Inn then it is back out into the hills for guests to fly these birds in their natural environment. Dates for this are set throughout the year and you will join a party of up to 6 individuals in total. There will be 2 hawks and ferrets (depending on season).

- The Juniper - A whole day individual experience

(approximately 7 hours)

This day out follows the same format as 'The Gorse' but on our individual experiences the day is all about the individual guest the birds and nature. Dates are flexible and available throughout the year. There are a maximum of 2 individuals in the party and all participants will be allocated their own hawk to fly throughout the experience.
